COMPANY PROFILE

ABOUT US

MERID Plumbing specialises in construction as well as maintenance plumbing. We have experienced construction teams catering for large commercial projects and housing developments. Also, our skilled maintenance teams are fit for day-to-day plumbing problems like blocked drains, water leaks and geyser installations and much more.

COMPANY BACKGROUND

In 2005 Robbie Jansen van Rensburg started working for his father Rory Jansen van Rensburg, director of RVR Loodgieters, which started in the plumbing industry in 1979, Rory has over 35 years of experience in plumbing, in both the old fashioned way and also in the more modern and specialised ways. As Robbie had learnt from the best, he qualified as a plumber in 2009, in both civil and commercial plumbing to day-to-day plumbing maintenance.

Robbie started RVR Plumbing Projects in 2009, gaining a foothold in the industry and growing into what is known today as MERID Plumbing. He commemorates his five children with the name MERID representing his children's names :

Markus
Eben
Robert
Iske
Divan
